If you do not want the Court to grant the Relief sought in the Motion or Notices or if you want the Court to consider your views on the Motion or Notices, then you or your attorney may:

File a response with the Bankruptcy Court, and at the same time, serve a copy of that response on Trustee. You can attend the scheduled hearing and present your views or support your filed response at that time.

If you or your attorney do not take these steps, the Court may decide that you do not oppose the relief sought in the Motion or the Notices and may enter an Order granting that relief.
